Notes

1. Entities must be classified to determine whether they are within the scope of the corresponding jurisdiction's Economic Substance regulations. Only in-scope entities carrying on relevant activities must meet economic substance requirements, which may vary depending on the activity.
2. Beneficial Owner filing/reporting in the jurisdictions where they are required are private.
3. In the BVI, annual financial returns are not subject to public filing. In Anguilla, an annual return declaration is required.
4. The Seychelles Revenue Commission is in the process of preparing the Guidelines.
